The Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services conducts a biannual survey of shellfish aquaculture production and harvest. Reporting of this information through the FWC's trip ticket system is optional. Aquaculture landings reported on trip tickets to the FWC can be used to requalify for the restricted species endorsement.

Occasionally, equipment vendors, industry representatives, local, state and federal agencies, other commercial seafood dealers, and fishermen request information related to commercial wholesale and retail dealers, but we are unable to provide any information if it is derived from the trip tickets that you are required to report under the Florida Statutes. Any information that we provide under Florida's Open Records Act (Chapter 119) is non-confidential contact information (for example, license name and address) listed on dealer license applications to any requestor.

Please indicate below if you want your contact and general product information to be made available for purposes of disaster relief, storm damage inquiries, trade adjustment assistance, or industry marketing and other purposes. No confidential information will be included:
