

WILDLIFE MANAGEMENT AREAS
ON WHICH A QUOTA PERMIT IS NOT REQUIRED, EXEMPT PERSONS ARE ALLOWED
TO HUNT OR FIRST-COME, FIRST-SERVED PERMITS ARE AVAILABLE AT THE CHECK STATION

The tables on the following pages list which Wildlife Management Areas, by region, allow hunting without a quota permit, allow hunting without a quota permit after a period of days during which a quota permit is required, allow exempt persons to hunt without a quota permit or distribute first-come, first-serve or random draw permits at the check station. In some cases the entire WMA may not be open to persons without a quota permit, but hunting in the specified season is allowed somewhere for at least a period of time. Anyone planning to hunt should read the appropriate area brochure before going afield.
